

programmes:

Oktober - May: 6 hours per week (2 days x 3 hours)

June - July: 9 hours per week (3 days x 3 hours)

levels: A2, B1, B2, C1, C2

✚ The course addresses those who want to

- develop their speaking ability in Greek
- speak correctly and appropriately, according to who is speaking to whom, in which context, about what and for which purpose
- be able to communicate in various circumstances, in which colloquial as well as official language registers are demanded
- exchange ideas and learning from others
- enrich their vocabulary
- improve their accent and intonation

✚ All the above are achieved through

- various activities (individually and in groups) such as:
 - ✓ oral presentations
 - ✓ controlled as well as free conversations
 - ✓ dialogues promoting argumentation development and debate
 - ✓ role-plays that involve learners in real communication scenarios
- exercises
 - ✓ vocabulary
 - ✓ grammar
 - ✓ oral comprehension (listening)

... on interesting and important topics of contemporary life.

information: Astara Venetsiana (vastara@greekcourses.uoa.gr)

Maggana Anastasia (amaggana@phil.uoa.gr)

Permanent members of teaching staff in Modern Greek Language Teaching Center, University of Athens